In this inspiring collection of reminiscences, a young religious leader shares the fruits of her personal study of the teachings of her grandfather, the founder of the international lay Buddhist organization Rissho Kosei-kai, Rev. Nikkyo Niwano (1906–99). The author bears witness to his lifelong dedication to the liberation from suffering of all people through the teachings of the Lotus Sutra, one of the most important Mahayana Buddhist scriptures, still relevant in these turbulent times.

Kosho Niwano is president-designate of Rissho Kosei-kai, which now has some 1.5 million member households worldwide. She is the mother of four children.
